

admiration of his friends and constituents, and he voluntarily retired from public life to spend the remainder of his days in training young lawyers, and to enjoy the peace and quiet of his home and family that he loved so well. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and an earnest and devoted member.

I know that I voice the sentiments of the members of the Richmond Bar when I say that no lawyer in Virginia will be more missed and mourned than John Randolph Tucker. He lived an ornament to his profession, he died lamented by a mourning people, I love to think of him, and to dwell friends, to make Petersburg her future

BEFORE MAYOR MAURICE.

Mayor Maurice had several cases claim his attention yesterday morning.

Mr. George Payne, who lives on Eighth Street, was charged with being the owner of a vicious dog, which bit Fitzhugh Lee, the little eight-year-old son of Mr. Joseph L. Lee.

There were a number of witnesses to the dog's attack, and the dog was placed in the pound.

The principal witness was young Lee, whose face showed that the dog had bit him in several places.

J. M. Nunnally and a little boy by the name of Fowler, who testified that the dog had been on the street.

The Mayor ordered the dog to be killed.

Mr. Payne took an appeal from his Honorable decision and the case was certified to the Hustings Court for Monday.

Messrs. Albright & Mitterdorf, who are the contractors for paving McDonough street, were summoned for running teams without a license.

Mr. Mitterdorf stated to the court that he thought it was customary for contractors to use their teams in doing city work without having to get out a license.

The Mayor did not so understand it and fined the concern $2.50 on each cart that they were using.

James McCullough was the next called.

He was summoned for treating his two daughters in an inhuman manner, and was fined $5.

These two girls went to a dance in the lower part of the city without Mr. Mc-Cullough's permission.

He went after them and hurried them home with a strap.

The girls then left home and went to live with Mrs. May Sharp, on Eighth street, who reported to the police that they were lacking in their duty as daughters, and that they were not giving expression to them. We feel that such qualities as these are becoming rarer with men as the world grows older, and therefore, the loss of such a young influence will be felt more by those really in need than by the departure of many from this world. These two young ladies are counted by the million. It is due to the memory of Brother Burke, to those who bear his name, as well as to himself, that we should say to the world: "In all of our intercourse with him and we have known him for years, we never knew him to be anything but reflecting discredit upon himself, his family, or those associated with him." Perhaps

"No stone will ever mark his grave—

Pomp's lying, vain display.

Where under old some wicked knave Misrepresented lay.

The hated traitor may grow

Bloom, and shed its down,

While he who humbly rests below

In heaven will wear a crown.

Resolved, That the Assembly requests of the public press the publication of these resolutions, and that a copy of same under seal of the Assembly be forwarded to the bereaved family of our deceased brother.

Adjourned for the Term.

derson, an appeal from Circuit Court of Maryland, before Judge Peck, was Williams and George Whitehead for the Lumber Co. vs. John P. Judge, an ap-1897, in the case of the Yellow Poplar

Lumber Co. vs. L. F. Chapman, should not be modified or vacated. Order to show cause issued, returnable April 5,

Case No. 25-28—Stamug Trust Glendale et al.,

To Celebrate the Day.

Rev. H. M. Wharton, D. D., of Baltimore, is to deliver an address at Grace

Street Tabernacle on the evening of February 23d, at 8 P. M.

The Junior Mechanics are to be there, and with the Daughters of Liberty, share this grand birthday celebration to the "father of his country."

Active preparations have been in progress for the past several weeks and arrangements have been nearly completed for probably the largest gathering of the members of the C. & O. Railway organizations ever held in this city, which organization with the city "across the James" has long been recognized as the greatest stronghold of the order south of Pennsylvania, in which State the order was founded in 1848.

A programme of unusual attractiveness has been arranged, and some of the most talented entertainers in the city will participate in the same, and several prominent ministers of this city will also take

LABORING CONVENTION.

Opposition to the New Stock Law—Evan-oke Rapids Cotton Mill.

The Convention of the Farmers here Wednesday, Bishop Chesire will be present, parishes of Waverly, Middle Neck, and South Neck, Halifax and Tidewater will

The Halifax county people are much stirred up over the new stock law, and are holding a meeting at large from De-hardship on many farmers who have winter crops grown.

Improvements continue to go forward at Ewanoke Rapids. The cotton mill is increasing its force, and the killing mill has resumed operations in full.

Forest Hill Park, which resulted in the discomfiture of Mr. Gibbons.

Mr. Dodson was seconded by Mr. Val.

Stein, while Mr. Gibbons's brother held the sponge for him. Mr. J. F. Bradley proceedings, and it is said to have resulted from remarks made by Mr. Gibbons concerning Mr. Dodson.

IN THE CHURCHES TO-DAY.

Where Interesting Services Will Be Held

Morning and Evening.

One of the most interesting and pleasant places to spend an hour Sunday afternoon is at the Young Men's Christian Association building. The attendance at these meetings has greatly increased.

The committee in charge spend much time and thought in arranging for these meetings, and they secure the best talent in Richmond and other cities. And the best musical talent in the city very gladly assist.

The Rev. James V. Fair, D. D., will address the meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock, taking for his subject "A Bad Beginning and a Good Ending. It is indeed in this subject that the hands of such an eloquent and magnetic speaker as Mr. Fair will attract a large audience, and it is probable that the service will be a most profitable one.

Mr. F. H. Merrill, the physical director, will speak to the boys at 4 o'clock. This will be the second talk about the "Budd Picture Gallery."

All boys under sixteen are invited to
